GIFT ACCEPTANCE POLICY

- One Can Help, Inc. (OCH) welcomes gifts for purposes that will help the organization further and fulfill its mission. OCH generally accepts cash gifts in any form (including check, money order, credit card or online), gifts of marketable securities, and contributions of goods and services other than cash that are related to the programs and operations of OCH. Any other contributions of non-cash items must be reviewed and approved by the Treasurer before acceptance.
- OCH encourages donors to make bequests to OCH under their wills, and to name OCH as a beneficiary under trusts, life insurance policies, commercial annuities and retirement plans.
- OCH will not accept gifts that (a) would result in OCH violating its corporate charter or losing its exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, (b) are too difficult or too expensive to administer in relation to their value, (c) would result in any unacceptable consequences for OCH, or (d) are for purposes outside of OCH's mission. The Executive Director is responsible for making a preliminary determination as to whether a gift falls into one of these categories. If the Executive Director determines that it may, the gift must be reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors before acceptance.
